Hospital Bridge Open Day: Sunday 13 July, 12 noon to 3pm

Hospital Bridge Chapel are throwing open the doors to celebrate 155 years since the building was built in 1870, although it has not been open for worship as a chapel that long.

There will be light refreshments and the opportunity to look at old photographs and memorabilia. It is hoped that past members and those who attended the thriving Sunday School and Youth Club will attend. If you know of anyone who attended Hospital Bridge during this time, please share this information.

A service of Worship will follow at 3.30pm. Everyone welcome.

RoadHoG News: July 2025

The latest newsletter is now available online, as the roadHoG Teams prepare for their last Stops of the season and a well-earned Summer break. Please remember them in your prayers as they reflect on a successful year where the new Bus has reached 4092 young people! Thank you so much for your prayers and support. They look forward to returning on 1 September.

The newsletter gives an update on the various Stops, with increasing numbers coming aboard at Central Park, the challenges of the Fenside Stop (please hold them in your prayers), and changes to Team roles at Fishtoft. Also, there is an update on the Blue Bus and requests for prayers for Team members. You can read more online at: <https://roadhogbus.org.uk/support-us/newsletter/>
