July is Bible Month for the Methodist Connexion, and this year it is St. John's Gospel which is to be explored in church services and in fellowship groups. Reading guides were handed out last Sunday, but there are plenty left for those who did not pick one up last week. 'The Way' fellowship group will be getting off to an early start this Tuesday (17 June) when they will be looking at the first chapter, including the famous 'prologue'. All are invited to join us on Tuesday at 7.30pm in Room 1 to begin this study of St. John's Gospel.

There will be light refreshments and the opportunity to look at old photographs and memorabilia. It is hoped that past members and those who attended the thriving Sunday School and Youth Club will attend. If you know of

Heckington Show Messy Tent: Saturday 26 and Sunday 27 July

It's not long now until Heckington Show. We're once again grateful to the show committee for allowing Boston and Sleaford Methodist Circuits to have a Messy Tent. If you're available to help on either or both days for even just an hour or two, and/or to help set up on the Friday afternoon around 4pm, please contact the Circuit Office. For those of you not aware, volunteers are required to chat to families and people of all ages coming into the tent and to have fun with crafts! It's a very rewarding experience. Please get in touch if you'd like further details before making a decision. For your info, if you volunteer, you'll either be given a free entrance ticket to the show or you'll be able to claim back the cost. Finally, we look forward to welcoming Rev Alan Robson (Lincolnshire Agricultural Chaplain) to lead the Sunday service in the concert marquee at 10:30am.
