Agricultural Chaplaincy: Revd Canon Alan Robson

In this week's chaplaincy blog, the Revd Canon Alan Robson shares his experience as Agricultural Chaplain in the Lincolnshire Methodist District.

"When there's a crisis, we get down the farm drive and try to support and guide people to find solutions or face new possibilities. In Lincolnshire, we have some of the best farming entrepreneurs in the country and it's a privilege to mix with them and explore what their mission and vision is."

"If opportunities arise, you must seize them!" - Brother Andrew

It has been 70 years since Brother Andrew made his first mission trip behind the Iron Curtain on 15 July 1955, and Open Doors was born. Celebrate 70 years of Open Doors by revisiting an interview with the founder, and seeing how the ministry is active and bold today: <https://www.opendoorsuk.org/news/latest-news/70-years-brother-andrew/>
