Zion 90th Anniversary Celebrations

Thanks to all those who came to the meeting last week. The weekend (19/20 October) is beginning to take shape and there are volunteers for many of the jobs required to make it a success. However, there will be opportunities for everyone to make contributions. Sign-up sheets will not appear until July/August, but you can come and see me sooner if you wish. People will be needed to help with flowers, food serving, plus mounting and stewarding the exhibitions to name but a few.

Lesley has put together a fascinating book about the building of Zion and subsequent extensions. She has used old newspaper reports to make this an historical document. Once this is printed, we will make it available for sale. Tickets for the Saturday tea will be at a cost of approximately £10 per person and will be on sale much nearer the time. Numbers will be limited and priority will be given to Zion members and regular worshippers. John has designed a logo which will appear on the website, notice boards etc. If you have any queries or suggestions, please get in touch with me or Stuart B. Gill.

Café Church at Zion: Sunday 5 May

Next Sunday we shall have our first café church service at Zion in some years. It is hoped that this less formal style of worship, with coffee, cake and biscuits at tables, will encourage people who do not regularly attend, to take the plunge and join us in worship on a Sunday morning. Rev Julie is preparing a service which anyone, either loosely connected to the church, or not, and especially young people, should be able to follow and relate to. So, over the next week please speak to anyone that you know that might be interested, and encourage them to come along next Sunday.
